I. DESCRIPTION

A survey study of selected contemporary issues impacting intercultural studies. The study will evaluate these issues in the light of revealed biblical truth.

This course is offered in two formats: in-person and online. Students registered for in-person attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. For both in-person and online students, assignments, and interaction outside of the class period are done in the learning management system

II. OBJECTIVES

A. General competencies to be achieved:

1. Understand selected contemporary issues affecting missions. (PLO 2, 3) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)
2. Evaluate these issues with a biblical worldview. (PLO 2, 3, 4) (A 3, 4, 5)
3. Study how various groups respond to these contemporary issues. (PLO 2, 3, 4) (A 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

B. Specific competencies to be achieved:

1. Do in-depth research on selected contemporary issues in missions. (PLO 2) (A 1, 3, 4, 5)
2. Actively participate in in-class discussions of these issues in missions. (PLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) (A 2)
3. Through written assignments and exams, demonstrate a biblical understanding of and response to the selected contemporary issues affecting missions. (PLO 2, 3, 4) (A 3, 4, 5, 6)

Our Mission: "...to prepare Christians to live and serve in the church and in the world according to the Biblical worldview."

IC346 D(N) (Blended) Contemporary Issues in Missions
Syllabus, Fall 2024, Session 2

III. REQUIREMENTS

1. Textbook: The course textbook, The Changing Face of World Missions, will be read to answer the study questions and be prepared for discussion. See schedule for dates of chapters to be read.
2. Forum Posts: The class time will be spent largely on discussing the various issues covered in the course. Some of these issues will be covered through watching videos of missionaries, pastors, and others discussing the topic via the website: <https://missiontable.org/videos/> The student will find discussion posts uploaded to Canvas for each week with a video to watch and respond to. Most videos are around 30-45 minutes long. More instructions are given in Canvas.
3. Issue Paper: Pick a chapter in the textbook and write a 5-page biblical/theological interaction with the issues covered in the chapter.
 - a. Describe the issue and examine it considering a biblical theology approach (i.e. avoid using just proof texts).
 - b. Present the issue making it clear and easy to understand.
 - c. Describe the major biblical and theological issues that might make this challenging or difficult for a pastor or overseas worker.
 - d. Turabian Research Paper format.
4. Case Study: Pick a chapter out of the textbook and in a 5-page paper answer the problem posed in the case study.
 - a. Include the questions you would ask and to whom you would ask them to get clarity on the issue. Also formulate your response.
 - b. Turabian Research Paper format.
5. Study Questions: You will find several study questions in the back of the syllabus, answer these in preparation of the class period in which that topic will be discussed. They are to be submitted through Canvas as a word document.
6. Exam:
 - a. Two exams will focus specifically on content covered in the main course textbook The Changing Face of World Missions
 - b. There will be a midterm covering chapters 1-6.
 - c. There will be a final covering chapter 7-12.
 - d. For both exams, the study questions constitute your study guide for the exam.

IV. METHODS

A. In-class methods: listening to lectures, participating in class discussions, writing, and taking tests.

B. Out-of-class methods: reading, writing, research, and studying for tests.

2. "See Grading Scale in University Catalog"

C. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

D. All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition. Unless otherwise indicated book reports and study questions may be in non-research format, interviews and other research papers should be in research paper format. A copy of the Turabian Style Guide is available on the Clark Academic Center page of Calvary's website.

E. Late Assignments: Assignments will be penalized according to the professor's late policy as explained in Canvas.

F. Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any content without identifying the source. This also includes taking another person's or AI entity's ideas or constructs and presenting them as your own. The use of AI generated content in student work is prohibited (even if cited) as it does not represent original work created by the student and is an unreliable aggregate of ideas from other sources. Plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade. Students should note that papers will be submitted in Canvas via "Turn-It-In". This program automatically gives the students work a plagiarism score, students should strive for a score less than 20.

- G. Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the Accommodations Support Coordinator (aso@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support
- H. The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
- I. Attendance Policy – Calvary has no official attendance policy, the attendance policy of the professor will be explained in class and in Canvas.
